

Welcome to Southwestern Medical Clinic Christian Counseling and Psychological Services.

Our staff of caring mental health providers is committed to providing compassionate and professional counseling and psychological services in a comfortable and confidential atmosphere. All of our therapists are trained at the master's degree level and beyond. They are licensed by the state of Michigan in their respective discipline.

We are not affiliated with any specific denomination or church and are respectful of all spiritual perspectives. When appropriate or requested by clients in the therapeutic setting, our staff incorporates spiritual guidance in a way that is consistent with biblical principles and professional ethics.

MEET YOUR PROVIDERS

Marcia Wiinamaki, PsyD

Dr. Wiinamaki is the Director of Christian Counseling and Psychological Services, and is a licensed clinical psychologist and a licensed professional counselor in Michigan. She has been practicing as a therapist since 1988, and she received her Doctor of Psychology degree from George Fox University in Newberg, Oregon. Her experience as a therapist includes working with issues such as depression, anxiety, childhood sexual and physical abuse, premarital and marital therapy, family therapy, relationship problems, group psychotherapy, adjustment issues, psychiatric medications, divorce mediation and coaching services, and clinical supervision.

Mary Andres, MA, LLPC

Mary Andres has years of experience facilitating peer support groups for grieving adults, teens, and children. Mary is a limited licensed professional counselor who received her master's degree in Counseling Psychology from Western Michigan University. She enjoys working with people of all ages, backgrounds, and circumstances. Mary also works with adolescent girls and young women on self-esteem building, boundaries, relationship difficulties, and many other transitional and emotional issues. She is a native of Southwestern Michigan and is looking forward to offering support to her community.

Mary Frank, MA, LLP

Mary Frank is a limited-licensed psychologist who received her master's degree from Andrews University. She has a wide range of experience as a therapist, which includes working with children, families, adults, and couples. Mary has specific expertise in working with struggling parents, victims of sexual assault, persons with developmental disabilities, and attention deficit-hyperactivity evaluations and management.

Christian Counseling and Psychological Services

General Information/Scheduling

5675 Fairview Avenue
Stevensville, Michigan 49127

Phone: (269) 429-7727

Fax: (269) 429-5754

Hours:

Monday – Friday: 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Wednesday: 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Satellite Locations:

- Berrien Springs Office
8008 M-139
- St. Joseph Women's Health Office
3950 Hollywood Rd., Suite 100
- Niles Primary Care Office
2002 South 11th Street

Counseling Care and Support Services:

- Depression
- Divorce Coaching & Mediation Services
- Self-Esteem Building • Sexual Abuse
- Grief • Anxiety • Eating Disorders
- Problem Solving
- Family Issues • Crisis Intervention
- Play Therapy • Relationship Difficulties
- Stress Reduction and Management
- Premarital and Marital Counseling
- Post-Traumatic Stress Disorders
- School Behavior Issues
- Parent-Child Problems
- Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder
- ADHD Evaluation and Management
- Career Counseling • Spiritual Issues

Counseling and Psychological Services

Christian Counseling and Psychological Services provides counseling for individuals, couples, families, adults, and children. Our professional staff is trained to deal with the many emotional, psychological and spiritual concerns of struggling individuals in our community.

We are not affiliated with any specific denomination or church and are respectful of all spiritual perspectives. When appropriate or requested by clients in the therapeutic setting, our staff incorporates spiritual guidance in a way that is consistent with biblical principles and professional ethics.

Be sure to visit our website at:
www.swmc.org

Flori Mejeur, MSW, LMSW

Flori Mejeur is a master's level licensed clinical social worker and received her MSW degree from Western Michigan University. She comes to us with a background in education and special education.

Areas of counseling experience for Flori include working with children, adolescents, and adults with a variety of issues, including depression, anxiety, conduct problems, school problems, marital therapy, and adjustments to life situations, such as divorce, moves, and loss issues.

Kris Petlick, MA, LLP

Kris is a master's level limited licensed psychologist who received her master's degree in counseling psychology from Western Michigan University, and her undergraduate degree from the University of Notre Dame. She works with a variety of clients, including children, adolescent girls, and adults, as well as couples and families. Kris also works with attention deficit-hyperactivity evaluations and management.

Rich Watson, MA, LLP, LPC

Richard Watson is limited-licensed psychologist and licensed professional counselor. He received his MA in Counseling from Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia, and has been a therapist since 1990. Prior to his career in counseling, Richard was employed for several years as a youth pastor. He specializes in working with attention deficit-hyperactive children, their parents, conduct-disordered children, as well as a variety of other issues, including marital therapy, depression, anxiety, and addictions. He has received specialized training in critical incident stress management.

Interns

In addition to our licensed staff, we also have interns who are completing their master's or doctoral degrees in counseling, social work, or psychology. Our interns are closely supervised by the Director of Counseling and Psychological

Bradford Wilson, MS, MA, TLLP

Brad is a master's level temporary limited licensed psychologist who is currently a Clinical Counseling doctoral candidate at Trevecca Nazarene University. Brad earned his MS in Psychology and MA in Ministry from Lipscomb University in Nashville, Tennessee. Prior to his career in counseling, Brad was a minister, missionary and judicial administrator. Brad works with individuals experiencing anxiety and depression as well as those seeking improvement with relationships, boundaries and self-esteem. He is also interested in working with families of individuals who are experiencing challenges re-integrating into society from overseas military service and prison.

Edie Zars, MSW, LMSW

Edie is a master's level licensed clinical social worker who received her MSW degree from Andrews University. Edie brings a wealth of experience gained in a variety of industries prior to completing her MSW. She has direct clinical experience in the environments of school counseling, a local women's shelter, a nursing home, and court-involved individuals in a social worker capacity. Edie enjoys working with clients of all ages, and has a special interest in marital therapy.

Thank you for choosing Southwestern Medical Clinic
as your healthcare provider.

We appreciate the opportunity to serve you.